

Curriculum vitae

Prof. Dr. Michael Hüll, MD, MSc,

Education:

Institute and Location	Degree	Year Conferred	Field of Study
State of Hessen / Germany	Staatsexamen	1992	Medicine
University of Marburg Medical School	MD	1993	Neurobiology
Board of Physicians Medical School	Board certification	1998	Clinical Psychiatry
University of Freiburg Medical School	Habilitation	2000	Psychiatry
University of Freiburg Medical School	Professor	2005	Psychiatry
Board of Physicians	Board certification	2007	Geriatric Medicine
University of Heidelberg	Master of Science	03/2008	Health Care Management

Research and Professional Experience:

7/1987-12/1987	Laboratory of Neurobiology, Prof. S. Varon University of California, San Diego, undergraduate student
7/1988-7/1991	Institute of Neuroanatomy, University of Marburg, (Dir. Prof. K. Unsicker) predoctoral studies
7/1992-12/1993	Department of Neurology, University of Tübingen (Dir. Prof. J. Dichgans) neurologist in training Max-Planck-Institut of Developmental Biology, Tübingen (Dir. Prof. F. Bonhöfer) post doctoral studies concerning the regeneration in the central nervous system of the rat since 1/1994	Department of Psychiatry, University of Freiburg (Dir. Prof. M. Berger) psychiatrist in training since 6/1999	Head of the Gerontopsychiatric Services, Department of Psychiatry University of Freiburg
since 11/2005	Professorship and Head of the Section Geriatric Psychiatry and Neuropsychology
since 4/2007	Director of the Centre of Geriatrics and Gerontology

Awards:

1996	Organon Award for Research in Alzheimer's disease
------	---

Main interests:

- cognitive and affective disorders
- neuroinflammatory mechanisms in psychiatric disorders
- pharmacological and psychosocial interventions in dementia