Possible tasks for people interested to work for ECOTROS

What the ECOTROS project group can offer

- You will be named on the website as responsible person for your specified task
- You will have support from the ECOTROS project group

Task	Responsibility
Manage a sub-discussion-group on a specific topic such as • A certain research area (e.g. disease) • A certain type of care • Assessment and outcome measures • Education in OT • etc.	• Regular emails to the members of the discussion group about once a month. • Brief report to the ECOTROS project group once a year
Manage the content of a specified area on the website such as • list of researchers with cooperation interest • list of funding sources in Europe • etc.	• Regular up-dates • Sending the updates to the ECOTROS webmaster, he will post it on the website
Manage the Funding information part on the website with • Regular updates of info • Keeping the links up-to-date • Developing a format for ''good practice cases'' • etc.	• Sending funding up-to-date info to the ECOTROS webmaster • Collecting ''good practice cases''
Advice about form and content of PR activities towards • Practitioners • Students • Clients • Education	• Analyse current activities and give an (based on PR theory) advice with recommendations

If like to overtake a task as listed above or you have another idea of how you could work for ECOTROS, please send an e-mail to Fenna van Nes, f.a.van.nes@hva.nl